

A Deepening Crisis:

Half of Unpaid CDPAP Workers Face Eviction Next Week

On PPL's third week of operations, a Caring Majority Rising survey finds that half of CDPAP workers still aren't getting paychecks - and nearly half of them won't be able to pay rent this month. Without immediate intervention from state leadership, hundreds of thousands of caregivers face a triple threat: being forced into homelessness while losing their health insurance and the wages they depend on to live.

Half of CDPAP Workers Didn't Get Paid on Their 3rd Pay Day

"Were you or your staff paid by PPL on your 3rd pay day (April 24)?"

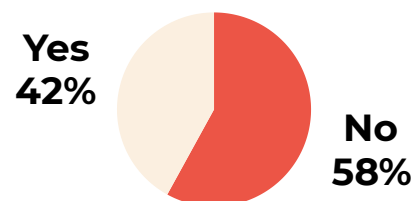

43% of Consumers Who Lost Staff Can No Longer Meet Their Home Care Needs

If you're a consumer or designated rep who lost staff b/c of issues with PPL, can you still staff all your authorized hours?

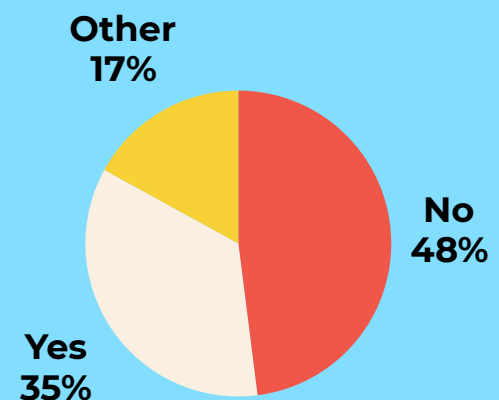

40% of Workers are Considering Leaving Their Job

If you're a PA, are you concerned you may need to leave your position due to problems with PPL?

Half of Unpaid Workers Can't Cover Rent Next Month

If you weren't paid or were partially paid since April 1st, will you be able to pay your rent/mortgage this week?

Methodology

Caring Majority Rising conducted an online survey of CDPAP consumers and workers from April 25-28, 2025. 492 respondents replied to the survey. 77% were Personal Assistants and 22% were consumers and designated representatives.
